

Does Moral Evil Prove There is No God?

What That Our All Powerful God CANNOT Do:

God Cannot _____
God Cannot _____
God Cannot _____ Anything New
God Cannot Contradict _____

What God CAN Do (Love):

God IS Love. Read 1 Corinthians 13:4-8
God Rejoices in _____ But Not in Evil (Psalm 57:9-10)
God is _____ (Isaiah 48:8-9)
God Doesn't Keep A Record of _____ (Isaiah 43:18-19)
God Never _____ (Isaiah 59:15-18)

If God is LOVE, why would he create a world in which pain and suffering are even possible?

The Truth About LOVE:

In order to have a world in which love is possible, you must have _____.
You simply cannot love if you cannot _____.
There is NO SUCH THING AS _____ LOVE.

The Truth About EVIL and PAIN:

God allows us the ability to LOVE by granting us _____.
Many times we use this free will to choose _____.
"Where there is love, there is _____"
The ability to choose love carries with it the danger of choosing _____.
The reality is that evil and suffering are the result of our own _____.
Suffering is the necessary consequence of the incredible gift of _____.
Without free will, there can be no _____, and a world without love cannot come from a _____

God Creates a World Where Love Is Possible. We Create a World Where Sin Is Often Our Choice. The Result is a World Where Evil and Pain Exist.

God Uses Tragedy

It's only THROUGH the tragedy that we come to a new life in the resurrected Jesus. A promise of salvation. A promise of a new body. A promise of life everlasting. A promise of the existence of God. Suffering does not disprove His existence. Suffering is part of His existence. How is Jesus able to endure suffering without losing Hope? Scripture tells us:

Hebrews 12:2-3

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.
