

The Need for Creeds

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, in one holy church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. AMEN.

There Are Three Levels of Thinking When Examining Truth:

List Three Areas In Your Life Where You Hold a Firm Belief:

Write a List of TRUTHS About One of These Areas:

All Of Us Hold Creeds Of One Sort Or Another!
As the Value of Objective Truth Comes Under Fire, the Value of Creeds Will Also Come Under Fire!

The Problem With Statements Like "No Creed But the Bible":

Why Were Creeds Developed in the First Place?

If We Want to Answer a Question Like: "How Do I Know If I Am
A Christian?" We Will Have to Turn to Some Sort of Definition

Name Some NON-Essential Christian Beliefs:

"In necessariis unitas, in dubiis libertas, in omnibus autem caritas."
